New Morning: Scott Hahn Reflects on Easter Sunday

The tomb was empty. In the early morning darkness of that first Easter, there was only confusion for Mary Magdalene and the other disciples. But as the daylight spread, they saw the dawning of a new creation.

At first they didn't understand the Scripture, today's Gospel tells us. We don't know which precise Scripture texts they were supposed to understand. Perhaps it was the sign of Jonah, who rose from the belly of the great fish after three days. Or maybe Hosea's prophecy of Israel's restoration from exile. Perhaps it was the psalmist who rejoiced that God had not abandoned him to the netherworld.

Whichever Scripture it was, as the disciples bent down into the tomb, they saw and they believed. What did they see? Burial shrouds in an empty tomb. The stone removed from the tomb. Seven times in nine verses we hear that word, "tomb."

What did they believe? That God had done what Jesus said He would do, raised Him up on the third day.

What they saw and believed they bore witness to, as today's First Reading tells us. Peter's speech is a summary of the gospels, from Jesus' baptism in the Jordan to His hanging on a tree, to His rising from the dead.

We are children of the apostles, born into the new world of their witness. Our lives are now "hidden with Christ in God," as today's Epistle says. Like them, we gather in the morning on the first day of the week, to celebrate the Eucharist, the feast of the empty tomb.

We rejoice that the stones have been rolled away from our tombs, too. Each of us can shout, as we do in today's Psalm: "I shall not die, but live." They saw and believed. And we await the day they promised would come, when we, too, "will appear with Him in glory."

Nueva mañana: Scott Hahn reflexiona sobre el Domingo de Pascua

La tumba estaba vacía. En la oscuridad de la madrugada de aquella primera Pascua, solo había confusión para María Magdalena y los demás discípulos. Pero a medida que la luz del día se extendía, vieron el amanecer de una nueva creación.

Al principio no entendían las Escrituras, nos dice el Evangelio de hoy. No sabemos con certeza qué textos de la Escritura debían entender. Quizás era la señal de Jonás, quien salió del vientre del gran pez después de tres días. O tal vez la profecía de Oseas sobre la restauración de Israel del exilio. Quizás era el salmista, que se alegraba de que Dios no lo había abandonado al abismo.

Fuera cual fuera la Escritura, cuando los discípulos se inclinaron para entrar en la tumba, vieron y creyeron. ¿Qué vieron? Los lienzos funerarios en una tumba vacía. La piedra removida de la entrada. Siete veces en nueve versículos oímos esa palabra: "tumba."

¿Qué creyeron? Que Dios había hecho lo que Jesús dijo que haría: lo resucitó al tercer día.

Lo que vieron y creyeron, lo dieron a conocer, como nos dice la Primera Lectura de hoy. El discurso de Pedro es un resumen de los evangelios, desde el bautismo de Jesús en el Jordán hasta su muerte en el madero, y su resurrección de entre los muertos.

Somos hijos de los apóstoles, nacidos en el nuevo mundo de su testimonio. Nuestras vidas ahora están "escondidas con Cristo en Dios", como dice la Epístola de hoy. Como ellos, nos reunimos en la mañana del primer día de la semana para celebrar la Eucaristía, la fiesta de la tumba vacía.

Nos alegramos de que las piedras también han sido removidas de nuestras tumbas. Cada uno de nosotros puede gritar, como lo hacemos en el Salmo de hoy: "No moriré, sino que viviré." Ellos vieron y creyeron. Y nosotros esperamos el día que prometieron que llegaría, cuando también nosotros "apareceremos con Él en la gloria."

Easter Prayer For Family

Merciful Father,

Thank you for taking good care of my family through all these years. Thank you for the traveling mercies we have enjoyed.

Thank you for being our God and preserving our lives. Thank you for saving us from sickness and giving us strength through all our endeavors. I pray for our lives. Please be our light in dark times. Take poverty away from us. Fill our lives with blessings. Be our shepherd so we never get lost. Save us from the traps of the enemy. Restore our strengths always. Let our hope in you never fail. Strengthen our faith and give us all our heart desires. Open their eyes to see your perfect gifts on this special day

Amen

THE GRACEFUL CHAPTER

Domingo de Resurrección

Se ha cumplido lo anunciado por los profetas, hemos pasado de la tiniebla a la luz,
de la falsedad a la gran Verdad,
de los interrogantes a tu VIDA como respuesta.
¡HAS RESUCITADO, SEÑOR!

Has resucitado, y con tu resurrección,
nos das alas para soñar y volar en el cielo eterno,
para combatir dudas y soledades.
Nos das ojos grandes para ver el mañana
frente al hoy que se nos impone.
¡HAS RESUCITADO, SEÑOR!

Y, porque has resucitado, te damos las gracias
Contigo, seremos invencibles
Contigo, llamados a la vida
Contigo, sin temor ni temblor, hasta el final.
Movidos por la fe, con la fe y en la fe.
¡HAS RESUCITADO, SEÑOR!

San Vicente de Paul

Hoy, al celebrar la Pascua, al igual que María Magdalena y los discípulos, nos encontramos con el reto de ver y creer en la resurrección. Al depositar su donativo en la caja de San Vicente de Paúl, ayudas a los pobres y hambrientos a ver y creer en la Resurrección.

St. Vincent de Paul

Today as we celebrate the feast of Easter, like Mary Magdalene and the Disciples we find the challenge of also seeing and believing the resurrection. As you put your gift into the St. Vincent de Paul box you help those who are poor and hungry to "see and believe" in the Resurrection.

Volunteers Needed

The Rosefest Committee is looking for volunteers to assist in helping with food booths, games, rides and parking attendance.
