Perfection as One: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Seventh Sunday of Easter

Jesus is praying for us in today's Gospel. We are those who have come to believe in Him through the Word of the Apostles, handed on in His Church.

Jesus showed the Apostles His glory, made known the Father's name and the love He has had for us from "before the foundation of the world."

He revealed that He and the Father are one.

Jesus is the "first and the last", the root of David, as today's Second Reading declares.

Wrapped in clouds and darkness as God was at Sinai, He is "the king . . . the Most High over all the earth," as we sing in today's Psalm.

Exalted at God's right hand, as Stephen sees in the First Reading, the Lord calls to us through the Church, His Bride.

He calls us to "the tree of life," to communion with God. This is the goal of His love, His saving purpose from all eternity, that each of us enter into the life of the Blessed Trinity and be "brought to perfection as one" with the Father and Son in the Spirit.

The story of Stephen, the first martyr, shows us how we are to answer His call.

Listen for the echoes of the Crucifixion: Stephen, like Jesus, sees the Son of Man in glory and dies with words of forgiveness and self-offering on his lips.

We, too, are to commend our spirits to the Father, to pray and offer our lives in love for our brethren, awaiting His coming in judgment. We renew our vows in every Mass, coming forward to receive the gift of His life.

We answer His call by crying out a call of our own: "Amen! Come, Lord Jesus!"

And in our communion we answer our Lord's prayer: "That they may all be one, as You, Father are in Me and I in You."

La perfección como uno: Scott Hahn reflexiona sobre el séptimo domingo de Pascua

Jesús está orando por nosotros en el Evangelio de hoy. Somos aquellos que hemos llegado a creer en Él por medio de la Palabra de los Apóstoles, transmitida en Su Iglesia.

Jesús mostró a los Apóstoles Su gloria, dio a conocer el nombre del Padre y el amor que Él ha tenido por nosotros "antes de la creación del mundo."

Reveló que Él y el Padre son uno.

Jesús es "el primero y el último", la raíz de David, como declara la Segunda Lectura de hoy.

Envuelto en nubes y tinieblas, como Dios en el Sinaí, Él es "el rey... el Altísimo sobre toda la tierra", como cantamos en el Salmo de hoy.

Exaltado a la derecha de Dios, como lo ve Esteban en la Primera Lectura, el Señor nos llama a través de la Iglesia, Su Esposa.

Nos llama al "árbol de la vida", a la comunión con Dios. Esta es la meta de Su amor, Su propósito salvífico desde toda la eternidad: que cada uno de nosotros entre en la vida de la Santísima Trinidad y sea "llevado a la perfección en la unidad" con el Padre y el Hijo en el Espíritu.

La historia de Esteban, el primer mártir, nos muestra cómo debemos responder a Su llamado.

Escucha los ecos de la Crucifixión: Esteban, como Jesús, ve al Hijo del Hombre en la gloria y muere con palabras de perdón y entrega en sus labios.

Nosotros también debemos encomendar nuestro espíritu al Padre, orar y ofrecer nuestras vidas en amor por nuestros hermanos, esperando Su venida en el juicio. Renovamos nuestros votos en cada Misa, acercándonos para recibir el don de Su vida.

Respondemos a Su llamado clamando con nuestro propio grito: "¡Amén! ¡Ven, Señor Jesús!"

Y en nuestra comunión respondemos a la oración de nuestro Señor: "Que todos sean uno, como Tú, Padre, estás en Mí y Yo en Ti."

St. Vincent de Paul

Today as we celebrate the feast of the Ascension we are reminded that Christ's saving work on earth continues through his disciples... and now through us. When we give to the poor, God indeed pours his love, peace and joy into our hearts, into our lives and into the hearts of those who are poor.

San Vicente de Paul

Hoy, al celebrar la fiesta de la Ascensión, recordamos que la obra salvadora de Cristo en la tierra continúa a través de sus discípulos... y ahora a través de nosotros. Cuando damos a los pobres, Dios derrama su amor, paz y alegría en nuestros corazones, en nuestras vidas y en los corazones de los pobres.
