Seeing and Believing: Scott Hahn Reflects

Jesus is nowhere visible. Yet the Gospel tells us that Peter and John “saw and believed.” What did they see? Burial shrouds lying on the floor of an empty tomb. Maybe that convinced them that He hadn’t been carted off by grave robbers, who usually stole the expensive burial linens and left the corpses behind.

But notice the repetition of the word “tomb”—seven times in nine verses. They saw the empty tomb and they believed what He had promised: that God would raise Him on the third day.

Chosen to be His “witnesses,” the gospel tells us, the Apostles were “commissioned, to preach and testify” to all that they had seen—from His anointing with the Holy Spirit at the Jordan to the empty tomb. More than their own experience, they were instructed in the mysteries of the divine economy, God’s saving plan—to know how “all the prophets bear witness” to Him

Now they could “understand the Scripture,” could teach us what He had told them—that He was “the Stone which the builders rejected,” that 118 Psalm prophesies His Resurrection and exaltation.

We are the children of the apostolic witnesses. That is why we still gather early in the morning on the first day of every week to celebrate this feast of the empty tomb, give thanks for “Christ our life.” Baptized into His death and Resurrection, we live the heavenly life of the risen Christ, our lives “hidden with Christ in God.” We are now His witnesses, too. But we testify to things we cannot see but only believe; we seek in earthly things what is above.

We live in memory of the Apostles’ witness, like them eating and drinking with the risen Lord at the altar. And we wait in hope for what the Apostles told us would come—the day when we too “will appear with Him in glory.”

Ver y Creer: Reflexión de Scott Hahn

Jesús no es visible en ninguna parte. Sin embargo, el Evangelio nos dice que Pedro y Juan “vieron y creyeron”.

¿Qué fue lo que vieron? Los lienzos funerarios en el suelo de una tumba vacía. Tal vez eso los convenció de que no se lo habían llevado ladrones, quienes usualmente robaban las telas costosas y dejaban el cuerpo. Pero observa la repetición de la palabra “tumba”—siete veces en nueve versículos. Vieron la tumba vacía y creyeron en lo que Él había prometido: que Dios lo resucitaría al tercer día.

Elegidos para ser sus “testigos”, nos dice la Palabra, los Apóstoles fueron “enviado a predicar y dar testimonio” de todo lo que habían visto—desde su unción con el Espíritu Santo en el Jordán hasta la tumba vacía. Más allá de su propia experiencia, fueron instruidos en los misterios del plan divino, el plan de salvación de Dios—para comprender cómo “todos los profetas dan testimonio” de Él. Ahora podían “entender las Escrituras” y enseñarnos lo que Él les había dicho: que Él es “la piedra que desecharon los constructores”, y que el Salmo 118 profetiza su Resurrección y exaltación. Nosotros somos hijos del testimonio apostólico. Por eso seguimos reuniéndonos temprano en la mañana el primer día de cada semana para celebrar esta fiesta de la tumba vacía y dar gracias por: “Cristo, nuestra vida”. Bautizados en su muerte y Resurrección, vivimos la vida celestial de Cristo resucitado, con nuestras vidas “escondidas con Cristo en Dios”. Ahora nosotros también somos sus testigos. Pero damos testimonio de cosas que no podemos ver, sino solo creer; buscamos en las cosas terrenales lo que es de arriba. Vivimos en memoria del testimonio de los Apóstoles, como ellos, comiendo y bebiendo con el Señor resucitado en el altar. Y esperamos con esperanza lo que los Apóstoles nos anunciaron: el día en que también nosotros “apareceremos con Él en la gloria”.
